D. A. “Andy” Anderson I & E Award

To recognize Texas A&M Forest Service employees who have done an outstanding job of helping Texans become more aware of and better informed about the importance of conserving Texas’ forest resources through wise use, protection and reforestation practices.

Nominations might reflect:

- Project Learning Tree activities
- Fire Prevention activities/delivery
- Speeches/presentations to schools, civic clubs, similar forums
- Landowner group tours/meetings
- News releases delivered
- Electronic media interviews given
- Exhibits manned at county/state fairs
- TFA committee participation
- Smokey Bear presentations
- Parade float participation
- Law Enforcement
- Any other activities that help get our forestry message to Texans

Any TFS employee is eligible when meeting these criteria:

- A full-time employee during the entire fiscal year preceding the presentation.
- Did not receive the award in the previous year.
- Is alive at the time the nomination is submitted.

Deadline for nominations is August 31st of every year.
